

Building bridges, shaping tomorrow

OECD Local Development Forum 2024

LOGISTICAL INFORMATION FOR PARTICIPANTS

24 September | Malmö, Sweden
25 September | Copenhagen, Denmark

GREATER
CoPENHAGEN

The Capital Region
of Denmark

Participants will be able to experience many parts of Greater Copenhagen over the course of the Local Development Forum. Therefore, we kindly suggest that you read all the logistical information carefully. Should you have any questions, don't hesitate to ask the organising team, whom you can identify by the orange stripe on their badge.

GENERAL INFO

Basic info

Day 1: 24 September

Malmö, Sweden

Malmö Live: Dag Hammarskjölds torg 4, 211 18 Malmö, Sweden

9.00-17.30

(18.00-21.00, Conference dinner. Pre-registration required)

Day 2: 25 September

(15:45-17.30, Optional study tours D&E)

On-site registration

Event registration has now closed, and confirmation emails have been sent to all participants regarding their attendance. If you are receiving this email, your participation is confirmed.

The on-site registration table to pick up your conference badge opens at 8.15 on 24 September \(Malmö Live\)

Dag Hammarskjölds torg 4, 211 18 Malmö, Sweden

8.30 on 25 September \(UN City\).

Marmorvej 51, 2100 København Ø

IMPORTANT: UN City is an official United Nations campus, and thus has mandatory airport style security to enter the building. You will need a photo ID (passport or driver's licence) to enter the building and we kindly ask you to arrive by 8:30 to allow adequate time to pass the security checks. Guests with no valid ID will be denied entry.

Badges

Your conference badge should be collected at the registration desk in the main entrance of the venues. For security reasons, we kindly ask you wear your badge throughout the entire event including at the social events. The security service will prevent those not wearing a badge from entering the venues and social events.

The deep dives and study tours for which you registered will be identified on the badge by abbreviation codes (e.g. Deep dive 1 = DD1 / Study tour A = STA).

Social media

We will be tweeting from CFE's account @OECD_local (X). We encourage you to follow this account and to start using the hashtag #GoLocal.

Dress code &amp; Weather Preparedness	Dress code of the conference: business casual.
	Nordic weather in September is unpredictable and ever-changing. Be prepared for sunshine, but always expect rain. We advice participants to bring layered clothes and umbrellas!

Remember to pack suitable footwear if you have registered for Study tour A to the Öresund Bridge.

AGENDA AND VENUES

Agenda

Explore the agenda and speakers on the event website:

OECD Local Development Forum 2024 - Building Bridges, Shaping Tomorrow \(oecd-events.org\)

Participants can log onto the website from the right-hand side to see their personalised agenda.

A limited number of agendas are available in printed format at the venue.

NOTE: Deep Dive 1: Coordinating employment and skills policies to enhance cross-border labour mobility runs longer than Deep Dives 2 & 3 (13:15-16:15). If you wish to tune in for the entire Deep Dive 1, you will not be able to participate in the study tours in the afternoon. Alternatively, participants can join the first half of the deep dive and transition to the study tours during the coffee break.

Venues

This year, to provide participants with a true cross border experience, our Local Development Forum is taking place in two cities and two countries. You can find detailed information about the venues for each day below.

Please be advised of the arrival times as we are expecting a large number of people on both days.

24 September, Malmö, registration desk opens at 8.15

25 September, Copenhagen, registration desk opens at 8.30

Room setup

Meeting rooms for this event will be set in theatre style with some reserved seats in the front for speakers and hosts. Kindly note that a free seating rule applies for the rest of the room and it is therefore recommended that participants arrive well in advance to the different sessions.

Luggage

We strongly encourage you to leave any luggage at your hotel. If you need assistance with luggage storage during the event, please inform us when picking up your badge at the registration desk. We will confirm availability upon request.

Wifi

The venues offer a guest network. No password is required but all new users need to enter their email address in the browser to get connected.

Malmö Live: Clarion Guest Network

Malmö Town Hall: City of Malmö

UN City: UN-City-Guest
