PEACE AND SPORT
FORUM

14th edition

A universal platform for peace !

In this Olympic year, amidst a resurgence of international conflicts, Peace and Sport has strongly reaffirmed the necessity of sport as a pathway to peace, strengthening social connections, empowering youth and women, and nurturing harmonious coexistence within communities.

Under the title "Speak your Peace", the 14th Peace and Sport International Forum concludes a year in which Peace and Sport has emphasized the pivotal role of athletes and encouraged everyone to join them in speaking up for peace through sport.

In an exclusive high-level format, Leaders and Champions will speak their pieces and share high-level testimonies, reflecting on Peace and Sport's recommendations to develop the intentional use of sport to transmit the values of peace worldwide.
