

Inspire

coastal challenges

Maria HONIG

Global Conservation Leader,
World Wide Fund for Nature - WWF

A woman with dark skin, wearing a green shirt and a colorful patterned headscarf, holds a large, white octopus with reddish-brown tentacles. She is looking down at the octopus with a slight smile. The background shows a blue sky with white clouds and a body of water.

WWF COASTAL COMMUNITIES INITIATIVE

Scaling Toward a Healthy Ocean and Resilient Coastal Communities

Maria Honig, Initiative Lead

WWF COASTAL COMMUNITIES INITIATIVE

Scaling Toward a Healthy Ocean and Resilient Coastal Communities

COMMUNITY-LED CONSERVATION: THE 5-POINT PLAN

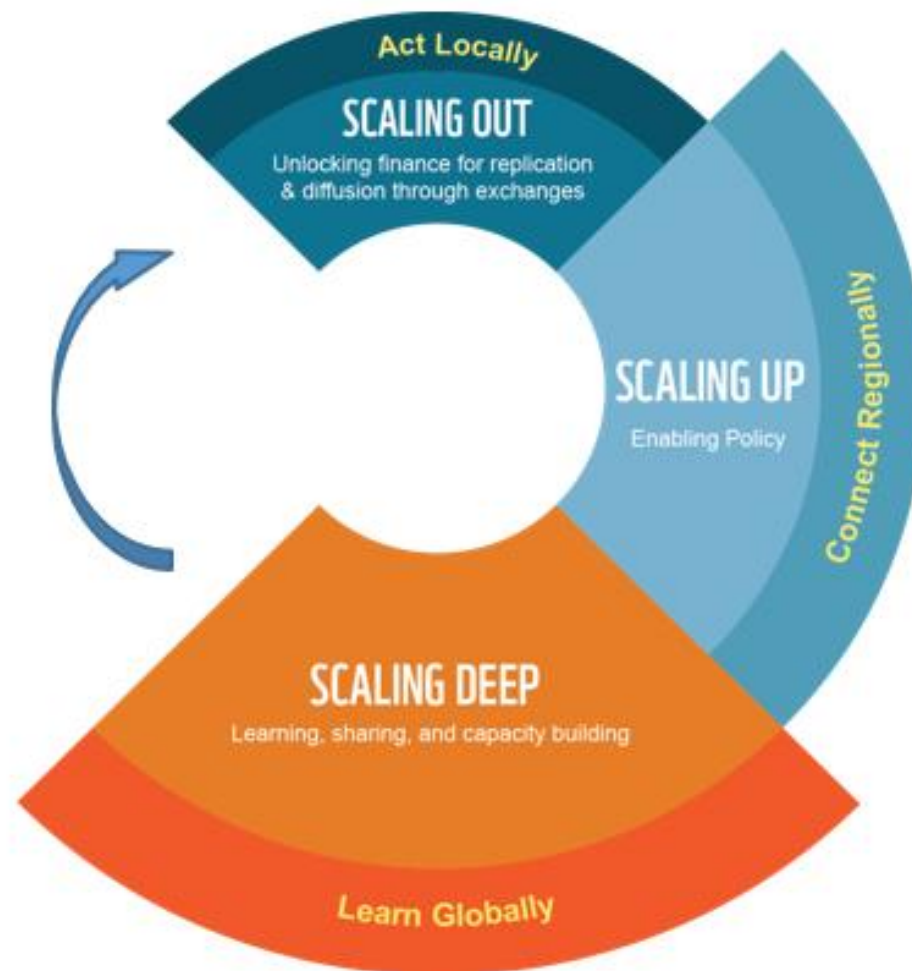

WWF COASTAL COMMUNITIES INITIATIVE

Scaling Toward a Healthy Ocean and Resilient Coastal Communities

Scaling by design

WWF COASTAL COMMUNITIES INITIATIVE

Scaling Toward a Healthy Ocean and Resilient Coastal Communities

GLOBAL IMPACT THE COASTAL COMMUNITIES INITIATIVE WORKS IN 6 REGIONS
ACROSS 29 COUNTRIES AND 128 SITES

