

Carla has fourteen years' experience working across three Federal Agencies, primarily in the Criminal Investigations space. During this time she has undertaken senior roles across several high-profile Federal Taskforces focused on disrupting complex organised and financial crime activities.