

Flein is a grape juice of the highest quality. Its grapes come from vineyards cultivated exclusively for our juices. In these “Flein gardens,” the vines are tended and harvested by hand, and the grapes are gently pressed - just as with Champagne - before the cold-filled juice is pasteurized in the gentlest manner. This allows Flein to shine with freshness, elegance and vibrant acidity.

VERNATSCH · (Italian Schiava)
is the historically most important autochthonous grape variety of Alto Adige and ranks among the lightest red wine varieties in the world. Its large berries produce pale, fruity red wines or rosé-style juices with a typical bitter almond note.

FOOD PAIRING · Pairs well with flavorful, intense dishes such as roasted duck with apple-red cabbage, pasta with wild boar ragout, speck or pork crackling dumplings, hearty dim sum, as well as desserts featuring rhubarb or wild berries.

JUICE DESCRIPTION · Radiant salmon pink in the glass. Seductive aromas of stewed strawberries and grated bitter almonds. Also reminiscent of redcurrants and pomegranate. The lively, fresh acidity provides balance. On the palate: rosehip, rhubarb, and red apple.
