Please consult the agenda for the room details of individual sessions. We encourage you to arrive early due to limited seating available.

Arrival at the OECD and Registration

We suggest you arrive no later than 8:00 AM on Tuesday 15 October, to allow sufficient time for registration, security measures and a quick coffee. Please be advised that the Forum is scheduled to start at 9:20 am sharp.

Kindly bring with you:

- A valid photo identification (national identity card/passport for French nationals and passport for non-French nationals) in order to obtain a badge.
- The QR Code sent to you by e-mail. This code will be required at the security and allow you access to the OECD premises. Thank you for your cooperation with the security personnel. In the event you have not received your QR Code, please be advised that a member of our staff will be present at the security to facilitate your entrance.

Forum Agenda

We endeavour to make the Forum a paperless event. As a step in that direction, the Forum agenda will be exclusively available in digital format. You can access the agenda on the Forum online platform.

You will also receive the latest version of the agenda the day before the event for ready reference.

Room Setting

The Forum will take place in theatre-style format in CC15, with the keynote speakers speaking on a lectern and the panellists seated in Davos-style chairs on the stage. Discussants will be seated in the front row with reserved seats.

Language

The official language of the Forum is English.

Internet Access

You can use a free WiFi service. Please connect to the network “OECD-Public-WiFi”, password JoinNetwork@1961, open a browser page and accept the OECD terms of reference.

Special Needs

If you have a disability or any additional needs and require assistance in order to fully participate in the Forum, please send us an email at cgfi@oecd.org. You will be contacted by someone from our staff to discuss your specific needs.

Supporting OECD’s greening efforts

At the OECD we are committed to minimising our impact on the environment. To support our ongoing greening efforts we encourage you to bring you own water bottles to the Forum. Multiple water fountains will be at your disposal within the Conference Centre. The OECD will also provide recyclable paper cups during the Forum. To limit the use of paper cups we encourage you to conserve your cups during each day of the conference, and to trash it in the dedicated “cups” bins at the end of each day.

Webcast

The conference will be webcast live. Video on Demand (VoD) will be available after the Forum on the Forum online platform.

Social Media

The Forum will be covered on social media, including Twitter and LinkedIn. The hashtag to tweet on the event is #OECDgfi.

OFFSET YOUR EMISSIONS

As a global event, the Forum welcomes participants from across the world. In an effort to lower the carbon footprint of the conference, we encourage you to consider offsetting your travel emissions. A variety of options are available to offset carbon emissions from, in particular, air travel. We will be happy to provide recommendations if helpful!

NETWORKING COCKTAIL

A Networking cocktail will be held at the OECD on Tuesday 15 October, from 18:30 – 19:45. All participants and speakers are cordially invited.

FAQs

How will registered in-person participants engage with the panellists, ask questions and react to the discussions?

The moderator invites the audience to raise any questions they may have. Those attending in-person can mark that they have a question by raising their hand, and a member of the OECD staff will approach them with a microphone to ask their question.

How will registered virtual participants engage with the panellists, ask questions and react to the discussions?

Virtual participants will join the session(s) through the dedicated Forum platform (here). To facilitate an interactive and dynamic exchange during the conference, all virtual participants will be able to ask questions through the Forum online platform.

Given the size of the audience, all questions and comments from participants will be moderated by the OECD team in real time. The OECD team will forward the most relevant questions and comments to the moderator. This is to ensure that the discussion is targeted and manageable. Virtual participants will only be able to ask questions through this platform to make it easier for moderators to keep track.

Where can I find further information on the venue and hotel arrangements?
