Work experience

1986 - Chief Adviser in the Danish Tax and Customs Administration – Anti-Fraud Department

I have an education as tax auditor, and have a Master's degree in tax and auditing.

I work as a Chief Adviser and project manager in the segment "special groups".

I have the last 12 years involved with cases in economic crime, mainly in the segment White Collar Crime. I have worked with the three largest criminal tax cases in Denmark (from start-up of the cases to the preparation of prosecution request), primarily with the State Prosecutor of International and Economic Crime (SØIK) who I several times been stationed and participated in the investigation of these cases.

I was the first in SKAT, which began working with personal / behavioral profiles in relation to the WCC - and how behavior leaves its traces in relation to the tax and the outside world (annual reports, etc.).

Private "experience"

I'm be happily married with Linda – and have 3 kids (10, 22 and 24 years).
